

TAKING THE CLASSROOM OUTSIDE

Meaningful, FUN plans for outdoor play is a hallmark of GREAT programs. The outside play areas should be seen as an extension of the classroom learning experience. If outside time is code for teacher breaks, we have really missed an important opportunity with children. Let's take a look!

Here are some great activities for your Outdoor Classroom Tool Box.

CHEESEBALL MATH

Shell Memory math game for kids

NOTES:

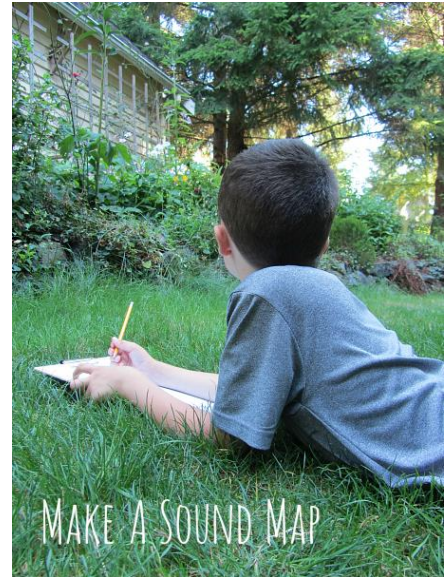

CUTTING NATURE

CLOUD IDENTIFIER

SOUND MAPPING

NATURE COUNTING/SORTING

PINE CONE BOWLING

NOTES:

COLOR HUNT

LETTER/NUMBER HUNT

MUSIC WALL

NOTES:

Online Resources: No Time for Flash Cards; Inner Child Fun

Presented by Lori Buxton | Managing Director
Association for Early Learning Leaders | earlylearningleaders.org
Lori@earlylearningleaders.org | 512.329.2010